

EXPERT PANELIST BIO: Michael Hartnett

Michael Hartnett is a managing director and chief investment strategist at BofA Global Research. He identifies key global market trends and offers strategic insights and solutions to both institutional and retail investor clients.

Michael has been based in New York since 2004. Previously, he served as director of European Equity Strategy in London. He was in New York from 1998 to 2001, serving as a senior international economist and global macro strategist working closely with the Foreign Exchange and Fixed Income desks. He joined BofA Securities in 1995 as chief economist in Japan, where he was based until 1998.

Before joining BofA Securities, Michael served as chief economist for Smith New Court in Tokyo, which was acquired by Merrill in 1995. From 1990 to 1995, he was an economist at the U.K. fund manager Schroders in London and Tokyo.

Michael earned a bachelor's degree in economics from the University of Exeter in Exeter, England.

BofA Global Research is research produced by BofA Securities, Inc ("BofAS") and/or one or more of its affiliates. BofAS is a registered broker-dealer, Member SIPC and wholly owned subsidiary of Bank of America Corporation.

