

The Merrill Lynch Perspectives Podcast

HOST BIO: Michael Hartnett

is chief investment strategist at BofA Merrill Lynch Global Research. He identifies key global market trends and offers strategic insights and solutions to both institutional and retail investor clients. In addition, Michael serves on the Research Investment Committee (RIC), which identifies suitable investments and portfolio strategies for individual investors across a broad spectrum of asset classes.

He has been based in New York since 2004. Previously, he served as director of European equity strategy in London. From 1998 to 2001 he served as senior international economist and global macro strategist, working closely with the Foreign Exchange and Fixed Income desks. He joined Merrill Lynch in 1995 as chief economist in Japan, where he was based until 1998.

Prior to joining Merrill Lynch, Michael served as chief economist in the Tokyo office for Smith New Court, which was acquired by Merrill Lynch in 1995. From 1990 to 1995, he was an economist at the United Kingdom fund manager Schroders in London and Tokyo. He earned a bachelor's degree in economics from the University of Exeter.

